

Not all change hurts!!!

It is my favorite season...not just because of the beautiful leaves falling...but because it marks the start of a process of change. The old leaves and flowers and plants are blown away, fall off, and are forgotten; while the new is starting, out of sight, to figure out what and where their life is going to be like after they rest for a season.

Just like the leaves and flowers, the fall season is a reminder that our old ways, thoughts, and behaviors can be stripped away and forgotten while we discover who we are meant to be and what our purpose in life will be after we rest. By the way - rest is simply taking the time to focus on the One who helps, with the least amount of hurt, as we go through the process of change.

Take a few moments this season to focus on the One who gave you life and gives you a purpose in life! If you don't know him, let me invite you to meet him!

On August 20th & 21st, we had a game stand at Olde Tyme Days in Dover. It was a great success thanks to supporters of The Broken Wall donating the space and helping during the event, the many volunteers who pulled long hours to sell game plays, set up and tear down, and the many people who stopped by to play the games and get their face painted.

SAVE THE DATE!!!

February 5th in Wellsville, PA.

We are structuring this year's banquet a little bit different than we have in previous years. Please save the date and plan to join us in this celebration.

Keep an eye for more details to come out after Christmas time!

Kohl's Volunteer Day

On August 16, Kohl's Department store in West Manchester Mall sent five employees out to volunteer with us. Not only did they help with upcoming fundraiser's, general office work, and much more...they also gave us a grant to use for general purposes.

This was a fun-filled day and we are thankful to the five ladies who came out as well as Kohl's at West Manchester Mall!

Christmas Love Project

Yes, Christmas time is soon upon us. While most of us celebrate and spend time with loved ones...there are those in our own community that find it hard to celebrate, as well as not being able to spend time with loved ones.

Last year we asked for donations for local teenagers who are in need of Christmas gifts and Love. We would like to expand the recipient list, to include an orphanage, detention center, teen shelter, military personnel, and other teenagers whose needs are brought to our attention.

Can you help us? We would like to put Christmas Gift packages together. We would like to ask you to give the following new items:

Socks	Batteries
Craft Kits	Board Games
School supplies	Stuffed animals
Toys (kids & teens)	Phone Cards
Bibles	Books
Gum	Hard Candy
Christian Music CD's	Toiletries
Christmas Novelties (for all ages)
Gift cards for ($Tree, Wal Mart, Target, and AC Moore)

Would you like to do something different on Black Friday and Saturday, this year?

We might have the perfect thing for you...volunteering! We will be selling hand-made Christmas gifts at the West Manchester Mall on November 26th and 27th and we need help manning the stand.

This position would involve cash handling as well as customer service. We would like to break up the schedule into four hour increments. We start as early as 6am – 10pm.

Please help us share some Christmas Love with local teens and Military personnel this year!

If any questions please call us @ 717-332-1475.
